COARC ARTISTS EXHIBIT AT ARTSWALK

(Mellenville, NY) More than thirty COARC artists show works in a variety of media in the first annual COARC Artists' Group Exhibition on Saturday, October 17 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Promenade Hill Center, 11 Warren Street in Hudson. Face painting and refreshments add to this ArtsWalk event, which is free to the public.

The show includes a memorial exhibition of paintings by featured artist Wayne Race, who passed away several years ago. The artist was a Claverack resident who worked at Promenade Hill Center and the COARC Mellenville workshop.

The COARC Artists' Group Exhibition is hosted by the COARC Arts Endowment, which assists individuals being served by COARC programs in participation in the arts. The COARC Arts Endowment is a member of Columbia County Council of the Arts and BeLo 3rd, and this show coordinates with many other events along Warren Street scheduled by these organizations for October 17th. A full schedule for ArtsWalk 2009 is available through www.artscolumbia.org. Information about the COARC Arts Endowment is available at 518-672-4451.
